

Welcome to The Village Pizzeria

Our History...

We are a family-owned restaurant specializing in Pizzas and Italian-American Cuisine. In 1979, the Evenson family purchased an old truck garage in Dresser, WI. After much cleaning and remodeling, we converted the facility into our first restaurant, "The Village Pizzeria" opened in November 1980.

Over the years, we added on and increased our seating capacity from 70 to 180. As our seating accommodations expanded so did our menu options, which now feature a wide variety of entrées to appeal to all tastes.

In 1996, we expanded again, this time opening a second restaurant in Amery, WI in what had been a longtime grocery store.

In 2006, Johannes VanderBent, who started out as a dishwasher in 1986 bought the Dresser restaurant with his wife Sara. They continue as the current owners.

In 2012 we expanded once again and purchased the original Hudson, WI Post Office and renovated it into our newest venture, "The Postmark Grille."
Russ Evenson has since retired, and all of the restaurants are independently owned. Though we are owned separately, we still strive for the same quality of food and service that our customers have been accustomed to.

We hope you enjoy your dining experience with us and thank you for your patronage.

The VanderBent and Evenson Families
