

Welcome to The Village Pizzeria

Our Story...

Since 1980, we've been proud to serve the Dresser community as a family-owned restaurant rooted in tradition. What began as a converted truck garage, purchased by the Evenson family in 1979, quickly became The Village Pizzeria, a place where great food and good company come together.

Through the years, we've grown from 70-180 seats and expanded our menu to offer something for everyone, while staying true to the recipes and hospitality our guests have come to love.

In 2006, Johannes Vanderbent, who started as a dishwasher in 1986, purchased the restaurant with his wife, Sara, continuing its legacy of hard work and care.

Today, that legacy lives on. In 2025, longtime employees Lucas and Kristine Williamson became the proud owners, carrying forward the same commitment to quality, community, and friendly service.

Every person who walks through our doors becomes a part of our story; and for that, we are truly grateful.

Thank you,

The Williamson, VanderBent, and Evenson Families
